

FIRST FRIDAY: CELEBRATION OF JEAN CONNER

Jean Conner, BLUE PYRAMID, 1970. Cut and pasted printed paper, 10 ¾ x 9 ¾ inches. Collection San José Museum of Art. Museum purchase with funds provided by the Lipman Family Foundation. 2018.09.01. © Conner Family Trust, San Francisco and Artists Rights Society (ARS), New York. Jean Conner: Collage on view at San José Museum of Art, May 6–September 25, 2022.

Friday, May 6, 2022

6–9pm

Free admission.

Celebrate the opening of Jean Conner: Collage. Jean Conner: Collage is the artist's first solo museum exhibition and brings long-overdue recognition to her extraordinary and fanciful collages. Conner's vivid, pictorial worlds feature playful arrangements of animals, nature, religious symbolism, aquatic environments, food, women, dancers, and divers.

7pm | Remarks by S. Sayre Batton, Oshman Executive Director, and Rory Padeken, Curator and Manager of Publications

Music by local DJ, Cedric D.

Late-night bites and cash bar at el cafécito, by Mezcal.

SAN JOSE MUSEUM OF ART
110 South Market Street
San José, CA 95113