Board held special meeting to approve a letter to the city urging action on the pigeon feeding issue

October quarterly meeting:

About 36 people attended

Doors were open to allow air to circulate so it was good to have mic and amp

Great to have timer help

Next time:

- emphasize the social part (nobody seemed to know it was happening)
- Remind guests that masks are recommended and to dress warmly, as doors will be open

January quarterly meeting:

January 19, again from 6 to 8 p.m.

Agenda:

Officer elections

Quit Carbon?

Rec Center?

Bird feeding update:

Stephanie got a public records request and received more than 100 pages of information plus photos

The city (specifically vector control) has visited 564 Chenery repeatedly

Landlord gets pest control to come to the house, Bouvier won't let them in

There has been an eviction hearing

Carolyn Deacy will get in touch with City Attorney's Code Enforcement division to see if they are working on this

Transportation/Safety:

Tabled until November: Write to SFMTA requesting special paint on Slow Streets' pavement (Carolyn W./Peter C.)

GPA Storage Locker:

Jessica got a few quotes on storage locker for items owned by the GPA. The prices are high. The GPA will pass for now.

Committee reports:

A. Treasurer

Cash Balance as of 10/10/2022 and 9/30/2022 is $24,978.21 in the General Operating Account at Bank of America.

Per the Board Authorization, a new account was opened at the Tri-Counties Bank at Miraloma Shopping center. We opened it with a deposit of $1,000.00. Signers on the account are Dennis Mullen, Treasurer, Hilary Schiraldi, and Adrienne Lacau. We will have on-line access, debit cards to deposit membership checks and other contributions, a credit card for GPA charges like insurance, web site fees, email, and operating supplies, and a minimum order of 80 checks for minor reimbursement of GPA expenses. The staff and customer service at Tri-Counties is very good.

Third quarter financials will be prepared later in the month after the IRS Tax Filing deadline on Monday, October 17, 2022.

B. Membership

273 members

C. Transportation

Steve and Hilary met with Nik Kaestner, Glen Park School parent, regarding Brompton traffic improvements. Steve and Hilary will keep Nik and the school updated on SFMTA's no-left-turn proposal.

Elk/Sussex - Per DPW "There is a notice to proceed date of October 31, 2022. Construction will commence soon."

D. Recreation and Parks

Resident Jeff Lugert has some suggestions regarding trails and graffiti. Jessica to see if she can get him to lead on this

A new member named Joan who works at the Glen Park Rec Center came to the meeting and was eager to promote their activities

Adrienne moves to adjourn, Heather seconds. MSA. Meeting adjourned 8:56 PM
